

PASSOVER BINGO

FOR ADULTS

Listen, notice, remember and reflect!
Cross them as the Seder takes place.

Freedom is mentioned	Laughter breaks out	Someone explains a ritual	You hear gentle disagreement
You learn something new	Someone tells a family story	A pause that feels meaningful (not awkward)	A new voice
An unexpected question	Geopolitics meets Passover	Someone connects the Exodus to modern day justice	A tradition is adapted (or differently explained)
You know where the afikomen is hidden	Food sparks a special memory	You still skip the gefilte fish	You still have more than four questions

Happy Passover!

FOR CHILDREN

Items can be seen, heard, tasted or experienced!
Cross them as the Seder takes place.

Ask a question (any question!)	Sing part of a Passover song	Spot a new Passover symbol	Taste something sour
Taste something sweet	Find the afikomen	Hear the word "Egypt"	Hear the word "freedom"
Recline like royalty	Help with a ritual (washing hands, eating matzah, etc.)	Listen to someone tell a funny Passover story	Use a silly voice during a song
See someone smile or laugh	Wish you could eat the egg (and that's it!)	Share what you're grateful for	Stay at the table until the meal begins

Happy Passover!
